

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. You can search through the full text of this book on the web at <http://books.google.com/>

PREFACE.

The object of this catalogue is to facilitate the finding of any book contained in the Library.

For convenience the books have been catalogued according to two systems.

In the first part the names of the authors are arranged alphabetically. (If the name is a pseudonym, there will be a reference from it to the real name.)

In the second part the books are classified by subjects, their titles (the article excepted) arranged alphabetically.

HOW TO GET A BOOK.

Take a slip furnished at the desk, and copy in the proper spaces the name and residence found on the card in your possession.

Find in the catalogue the numbers of the book you want. Write the number before the period (.) in the column headed Shelf, that after the period (:) in the column headed No., and if the book is in more than one volume, designate the volume wanted in the column headed Vol.

E. G.—If you want the second volume of Macaulay's History of England, write the figures in the slip column thus :

Shelf	No.	Vol.
216	4	2

Then hand the slip to the Librarian together with your card, which will be returned to you with the book.

In order to avoid tedious waiting and unnecessary delay, it is advisable to select several books and to write their numbers in the spaces provided on the slip, the first choice to be the top number.

R L prefixed to the shelf number indicates that the book thus designated is not to be taken for home use, but may be consulted in the Reading room.

Pamphlets and illustrated magazines also, are not to be taken from the Library ; they are indicated by the letters P and M with an (*) prefixed.

When further information is desired, the card catalogue can be consulted, and the Librarian is always ready to afford all the aid in his power.

Respectfully,

A. L. PECK, Librarian.

Gloversville, N. Y., December 1st, 1880.
